

Level Completion Certificate

This is to certify that:

Rana Sakr

Successfully completed

Introduction to Human Resource Management

The student learned the basic principles of human resource management in modern day companies, and the course covered how to plan and design jobs, and best practices for hiring, training and developing employees to take advantage of their full potential and transfer their energies in favor of working effectively by (2) hours of training and interactive.

1/9/2025

